Training

I studied at Plymouth College of Art (Arts Foundation course) and Exeter College of Art (Degree in Graphic Design, specialising in illustration)

Practice

As a printmaker, I produce limited-edition linocut relief prints. My work is an exploration of the magic that exists just below the surface of the familiar in landscape. The prints I produce have a deceptively photographic quality while being largely imagined and entirely hand-crafted.

Recent exhibitions:

Wells Contemporary (open) - 2019
Royal West of England Academy (open) - 2019
South West Academy (open) - 2019
